A RESOLUTION to commend "Kids In Tune" on their outstanding progress in entertainment.

WHEREAS, the children of Tennessee are its most precious resource and its greatest hope for the future; and

WHEREAS, the many children, ages zero to fourteen, play a significant role in the state of Tennessee, generating excitement which adult Tennesseans enjoy; and

WHEREAS, "Kids In Tune" is a children's show choir, who, with dazzling singers and dancers, perform with grace and poise; and

WHEREAS, the twenty-three high-energy celebrities have beautifully entertained audiences at places such as the Grand Ole Opry and Governor Don Sundquist's Inauguration. They have also performed for former Governor Ned McWherter, United States Senator Bill Frist, and a host of other organizations; and

WHEREAS, P.J. Davis, the director from Kingsport, Tennessee, has unselfishly dedicated her time and patience to lead this fine group; and

WHEREAS, the outstanding entertainers perform a lively repertoire of music and dance which include country tunes, exciting Broadway hits, and inspirational American patriotic songs; and

WHEREAS, this energetic group of children is driven by their mutual desires and abilities to delight audiences with professional quality performances, which is the common thread that bond the group together; and

WHEREAS, "Kids In Tune" are also known for their remarkable costumes made of satin and sequins where, after every performance, they leave audiences in a state of amazement; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-NINTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, That we hereby commend "Kids In Tune" for the exemplary entertainment they have provided the many people in this great state of Tennessee.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
